

The image features three black silhouettes of crosses against a dramatic, cloudy sky at sunset or sunrise. The central cross is the largest and most prominent, with a figure hanging from it. Two smaller crosses are positioned on either side, slightly behind the central one. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a bright orange and yellow near the horizon, with scattered white clouds catching the low light.

Mark 15

He Endured

I. He Endured Intense Loneliness.

Isa 53:3 He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

Psa 27:9 Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

- III. He Endured Immense Pain.
- IV. He Endured Cruel Derision.

Jesus was saturated with ridicule and contempt that was only fit for Satan.

Mat 27:28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

A silhouette of a crucifix is centered in the background. The cross is dark and stands against a sky with soft, horizontal clouds. The lower part of the image is bathed in a warm, golden light, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall mood is solemn and contemplative.

Isa 53:4 Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. 5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.
